

The Chicago American Giants

The Chicago American Giants of the Negro American League, who has been touring the east for the past three weeks giving both colored and white Eastern teams strong competition, will show their wares here Aug. ^{16th} when they meet the Newark Eagles of the Negro National League. This will mark the first meeting of the two teams for some time.

According to messages received from Manager "Candy" Jim Taylor of Chicago American Giants and Willie Wells Manager of the Newark Eagles, both teams are in tip top form and are ready for the long waited contest.

The Chicago American Giants will feature such men as "Cool Papa" Bell, known as one of the fastest men in base ball and who usually spends his winter months playing base ball in Mexico and Cuba. Bell has played in both the East and the West and has participated in several East-West classics, and made a great reputation for him self when he was a member of the Old St. Louis Stars.

Alex Radcliffe, the hard hitting third baseman, who has played with the Chicago team for a number of years will be in the line up. Lester Lockett and Henry Smith at second and short make up that double play combination. In the out field will be seen John Huber, Jimmie Crutchfield, Willie Ferrell. These men are considered among the best fly ball chasers in the Negro American League.

The Chicagoans carry a superb pitching staff which includes, Sam Thompson, Ollie West, Willie ~~Wells~~ Burns, John Huber and Willie Ferrell. George Britton, well known throughout the base ball ~~world~~ circuit east and west will be seen behind the plate.
